Topics: Second Magic War

Welcoming letter:

Esteemed member of the Order of the Phoenix;

Firstly we extend a warming welcoming to all of your brave souls part of this society; to what will be the Order of the Phoenix. This is farther more from being a welcoming to what will be the order in which we will change the course of history, our history. This same History which has been corrupted by dark evil which expands all through our Wizard World. This is manifesto for you to find support and strength to take decisions that will not be close to easy. We are the ones with the bravery enough to take action over these evil souls that hurt all of us. This is why we need to work together as a whole united organization, under principles that follows under transparency, organization and strategy. The pillar of all of our decisions should be towards the well-being of all Wizards and the complete eradication of evil form our world. We strongly believe that we have the power and the opportunity to make a change and fight under ethical and moral grounds You know Who and all his followers. It is time to and all this catastrophe, and for this we all require a vote of silence, what we discuss in this order should remain in this walls for the security of our world and all those part of it. It is also fundamental to mention that without deep understanding of the conflict and of the characters involved in all of this, a correct development to win this war can't be achieved. We expect a high level of magical skills, in the areas of Defense against Dark Magic, well practice and knowledge of spells.

It is a well a requirement to understand that being part of this order puts you in instant risk and because of this, you and all of your relatives and people you love are targets of the death eaters and of You Know Who and all of those who follow him.

Welcome to the order of the Phoenix and we are all here to accompany you and fight by your side;

Daniela Osorio

Introduction/ context:

“It’s a secret society,” said Hermione quickly. “Dumbledore’s in charge, he founded it. It’s the people who fought against You-Know-Who last time.” (pg 67) [Brief explanation given by Hermione about the Order Of the Phoenix]

The main purpose for the creation of this secret society ‘‘the order of phoenix’’ in 1970s, was to oppose to the death eaters and Lord Voldemort. This creation was right after the return of Lord Voldemort to England, when his battle for taking over the Ministry of Magic and the oppression for Muggles started. During the First Wizarding War (1970s-1981) The Order joined with the England Ministry of magic played an important role against the Dark Lord and it’s Death Eaters. War in which James and Lily Potter were killed by Lord Voldemort. However, after all their members deaths the Order obtained their first victory derotating Lord Voldemort. Subsequently the war the Order was dissolved.

Until in 1995 Harry Potter announce seeing Lord Voldemort when he sees Cedric Diggory killed when ‘‘a second voice yells Avadra Kedavra’’ during the Triwizard Tournament and after he fight with the Dark Lord, he returns with Cedric Diggory body announcing Lord Voldemort return. After Harry announcement, Albus Dumbledore calls the Order of the Phoenix and the Order returned too.

However, the minister of magic Cornelius Fudge didn’t modified its posture and continues refusing to accept the return of the Dark Lord, because he thought that the only reason because Albus Dumbledore would say that is for taking his place as the Minister of Magic. Due to that, the people hardly believe the return of Lord Voldemort.

Till June 18, 1996, in which the confrontation known as ‘‘The Battle Of The Ministry Of Magic’’ between Sirius Black and Bellatrix Lestrange was occasioned, causing Sirius Black death and the official and public return of Lord Voldemort. In this battle, Voldemort planned to obtain the prophecy by taking Harry Potter and Albus Dumbledore to the Department of Mysteries inside the British Ministry Of Magic in London. Succeeding this event, the Ministry of magic Cornelius Fudge public accepted the return of Lord Voldemort. Dolores Umbridge has removed of her charge as Hogwarts director. And Dumbledore was reinstated as the official and only Director. For the Order this battle meant the loose of one of his members Sirius Black and some injuries for some of their members. Also, all the Death Eaters involved in the battle were captured and taken to Azkaban.

First Magic War:

This event developed from the early years of the 1940 decades but concretely had a start in 1970 when it officially was declared as a war. This war will continue up until 1981 when it ends with an unexpected event that completely stopped the conflict.

It is fundamental to take into consideration that the importance of this war follows because the originality of You Know Who and his dark regime officially started and developed through this years. This year had horrible repercussions that affected both Muggles and Wizards.

It all started around 1940 with the inheritor of the Slytherin house. This man was known as Tom Marvolo Riddle; he is later known as You Know Who. He changed his name due to the background it had. Tom Riddle was also the name of his father. His father was a muggle that when he found out that his wife was a wizard, he decided to abandon them; Riddle created a name that as he said; It would make the world shake out of fear. The story of this despicable man started in 1943, when he had an affinity and obsession of finding power during his academic years at Hogwarts School. When he started digging in all of this, he discovered that the inheritor of the Slytherin; Salazar Slytherin was himself. He learned the Parsel language (snake language) in order to open the Chamber of Secrets. All of this with the purpose of liberating the Basillic. To have some context over this, it is important to remember that Salazar Slytherin and the other founders of Hogwarts School had a dispute over the politics of the school in whether they should allow or not half-blooded wizards. Salazar left the school but first he created a secret chamber, the Chamber of Secrets and rained a Basillic to kill every single half-blooded when liberated. He then said that his inheritor should be the one to open the Chamber and liberate the Basillic. Following with the story of Riddle, when he liberated the beast, various students ended petrified and one girl died which was known as Myrtle Warren, known as the ghost crying girl in the bathroom. Then, Riddle closed the Chamber and blamed all the fault on Hagrid and his mascot. During this time, Riddle started digging in mortality and power. He then discovered about the Horcruxes. He got obsessed over this idea and because of this started all the killings, even the triple assassination of his muggle family. Tom developed a plan to expand his power by gaining support and followers, he started by students at Hogwarts. After his graduation he continued with the killings and then left England. He arrived at Albania and started studying deeper on Dark Arts in transformation areas.

Having 1970 as a referent to understanding the movements of Voldemort, we understand that with the formation of the Mortifogous, he declared himself the authentic Lord of Darkness. He started planning the revolution against the Ministry of Magic and the attacks on muggles and half-blooded. This created a real threat in the Wizarding World that lead to the creation of this order headed by Albus Dumbledore. In July 1980, a boy who matched the prophecy said by Sybill Trelawney was born; Harry Potter. The potter family betrayed by Pettigrew, ended in the assassination of the Potter Family. The sacrifice that Lily did to save Harry ended in an ancient enchantment that protected Harry. When Voldemort then tried to kill Harry, the spelled bounced and hurt the soul and body of Voldemort making him weak and a connection between the both of them was created. The war then ended.

Dumbledore's Army:

Secret organization created by Harry Potter, Hermione Granger and Ron Weasley for teaching the Hogwarts students Defense Against the dark arts, the organization was created while Dolores Umbridge was the Dark Arts Professor and the Headmistress of Hogwarts. The objective for the creation of this organization was to teach practical defensive magic, cause the ministry only approved the course of Dark Arts, with only the theory being teach. The minister Cornelius Fudge approved this because he was afraid that Albus Dumbledore use the practical lessons to train an army, to oppose him, since he refused to believe that Lord Voldemort was back.

Hermione Granger was the one that proposed the teach of defensive magical skills, and the teach of practical defensive magic, due to the return of Voldemort, and the need of the getting the knowledge of dark arts for combating Death Eaters and Lord Voldemort. Also, Hermione proposed that this were taught by Harry Potter, however at first Harry refused to teach it. However, after 2 weeks dealing with Dolores Umbridge, he decided to start the Army.

The Book

"Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix" Follows the sequel written by J.K Rowling being the fifth book of this sequel. Being the fifth book, means that Harry Potter is grading his fifth year at the Hogwarts school of Magic. The plot of each 38 chapters has as a root the hidden and mysterious door which torments Harry in his dreams. Although within the book, problems among friends, exams and mini-mysteries appear, the most relevant factor that twists the story and affects each and every character is the threat of the returning of Lord Voldemort. The increasing threat faces as well the doubting of the veracity of the returning of He Who Must Not Be Named. The Ministry of Magic is convinced that this is not true and face a series of decisions to censor any information involving the returning. Still at the end, the returning of the "Lord" becomes a fact. Decisions must be made among the organizations and within Hogwarts school. The threats grew in unimaginable quantities and because of this, neither the Ministry nor the greatest professors of Hogwarts seem to be capable of stopping him and his followers.

In chapter 5, Sirius Black explains the background of what will be understood as the "Order of the Phoenix." The plot comes to be Black Family's home for generations; the Grimmauld Place.

The Black Family:

It's a Noble and one of the most ancient houses having great wealth within the pure-blooded wizarding families. (Pure-blood: Wizard families which have no Muggles within their family tree) This family had been one of the most important ones in Britain due to the fact that they belonged to the Sacred Twenty-Eight families. (The sacred Twenty-Eight; were 28 British Families who were known as the truly pure-blooded by 1930. This families were: Abbot, Avery, Black, Bulstrode, Burke, Carrow, Crouch, Fawley, Flint, Gaunt, Greengrass, Lestrangle, Longbottom, Macmillan, Malfoy, Nott, Ollivander, Parkinson, Prewett, Rosier, Rowle.) This wealthy family becomes extinct by the late 20th century once Sirius and Regulus Black died and left no children behind.

Continuing with chapter 5, Sirius explains how his “utility” within the order is no longer relevant due to the percussions he faces and because he is a Animagus. (Animagus is a Wizard who has the ability to transform into an animal.) After a series of debates whether to tell or not Harry, he comes to learn that Voldemort, in a hidden way is building an army. Although Harry survived the returning and the Order has been re-established by Dumbledore; the Wizarding society’s not believing the returning of “it” causes problems. The Ministry supports and impulses the Wizards to not believe nor the order, nor Harry. Fudge, having great influence over the Ministry, makes this even stronger due to the fact that he believes that Dumbledore is trying to get his job by lying about the returning. The last 14 years of peace are completely tensioned due to the possibility of the end of the mentioned peace. The order is then very small due to the lack of allies and its credibility is completely affected. Firstly, Sirius is a wanted murderer; Secondly Lupin is rejected due to the fact that he is a Werewolf. The members of the Order which are also members of the Ministry are oppressed and remain hidden because of the threats imposed by Fudge. Fudge at the same time becomes the greatest obstacle to the order having in mind that he uses information spread in the Daily Prophet to discredit Dumbledore and Harry Potter.

The Phoenix

Etymologically, the Order is named after the magical bird called phoenix. The leader and founder, Albus Dumbledore had a bird of his own named Fawkes. He felt represented that much of this creature that even his Patronus took the form of the magical bird. Fawkes himself fought during the wars. But the specie itself, is known for what it represents in a transcendence way. It symbolizes resurrection and the reconstruction of life after death. The order actually represents this symbolization because after its “death” (dissolvance) it was reconstructed once again.

The Horcruxes

Horcruxes can be find all around the world. They have existed since Ancient Greece (Herpo the Foul) but the ones of Voldemort around 1934-1994. They were manufactured by both Herpo de Foul and Tom Riddle. They are used to contain in different objects, parts of one’s soul to protect them from death. The Horcruxes are used by dark Wizards who want to achieve immortality. In order to create a Horcrux, the soul must be corrupted by a murder committed by the wizard. When a Horcrux is created, spells such as Counter-Charms are created in order to protect the horcrux itself. They are condemned as the worst dark magic that exists.

The origin of the first Horcrux is known for its creation in the Ancient Greece by Herpo the Foul. The next and only more creator was Lord Voldemort. Voldemort successfully was able to create more than one. When the Horcrux were discovered and the gravity of the situation was understood, the Ministry tried to kept in secret its existence. In Hogwarts, topics related to Horcruxes were eliminated so that o one tried to elaborate one for themselves.

Tom Riddle, found once the book Secrets of the Darkest Art in Hogwarts library, there he studied the topic and came to understand how to create one, actually many. The first Horcrux of the “Lord” was created when Tom Riddle killed Myrtle Warren at the age of 16th and carried out the spell to divide his damaged part of the soul and place it in an object. He continued to divide his soul in 6 different intended Horcruxes and one by accident. This one by accident was caused when Voldemort killed Lily and James Potter and his soul was automatically divided and reached the nearest living thing (harry) making him a non-intended Horcrux.

To destroy a Horcrux, its necessary that the object is damaged beyond repair in order to reach the part of the soul contained within the object. The powers and effects of a Horcrux are unimageable. If someone is for too long close to one, the dark soul within the object has the ability to connect to the other person’s soul and possess a part of it. That someone can later lost control over its soul and personality.

List of Horcruxes:

- Tom Riddle’s Diary:

Lucius Malfoy was hiding it until he gave it to Ginny Weasley and later found by Harry Potter. It was created when Tom Riddle Killed Myrtle Warren by the Serpent of Slytherin. It was destroyed by Harry Potter by stabbing it with one of the Basilisk's Fangs in the opened Chamber of Secrets within Hogwarts.

- Marvolo Gaunt's Ring:

Hidden in the Gaunt Shack. It was created once Tom Riddle, being a Senior, killed with the Morfin Gaunt's Wand. The murdered happened in the Riddle House.

- Salazar Slytherin's Locket:

Hidden in the Crystal Cave but stolen by Black and Kreacher so it was moved to 12 Grimmauld Place. It was then stolen by Mundungus Fletcher who gave it to Dolores Umbridge. It was created when Voldemort made a muggle tramp.

- Helga Hufflepuff's Cup:

Hidden in the Lestranger Family vault at the Bank. The murdered of Hepzibah Smith at his own home caused the division of this part of the soul.

- Rowena Ravenclaw's Diadem:

Placed at the room of Requirement within Hogwarts. It was created with the murdered of a peasant in Albania.

- Nagini:

The serpent, is constantly moving by the side of Voldemort. It was caused with the assassination of Bertha Jorkins.

- Harry Potter:

Voldemort's soul was extremely damaged when he killed James and Lily, when the spell backfired and Lily protected Harry, Voldemort's soul divided without his consent and that part of the soul entered Harry Potter through his scar. He is not considered to be one real Horcrux because Voldemort didn't want to divide his soul at that point.
